SPRINGTIME CABARET IS SETTING FOR APRIL 1 POPS CONCERT AT UD

DAYTON, Ohio, March 16, 1990--In honor of the April Fool's Day concert date, the University of Dayton's chorale and orchestra will be offering a lighthearted cabaret performance on Sunday, April 1, at 3 p.m. in the Kennedy Union Ballroom on campus. The Spring Pops Concert is free and open to the public.

Cabaret seating, complimentary snacks and a cash bar will set the stage for student performers. The UD Chorale will offer selections from some of America's favorite musicals, including "The Fantasticks," "A Chorus Line," "Kismet," "Pippin" and "Porgy and Bess." The University Orchestra will perform "Simple Symphony" by Benjamin Britten and ragtime tunes from the Red Back Book of Scott Joplin. The choir and orchestra will join forces to present Gabriel Faure's "Pavane," popularized by Barbra Streisand, and the performance will end with "God Bless America" in honor of the late Irving Berlin.

Sophomore Rose Drance and junior Thomas Helsel will act as emcees for the cabaret concert. Both voice students at UD, the pair will also perform a duet from "The Phantom of the Opera."
